

RIVER OF LOVE

Sold it down, a river of love
I could not keep my head above
Wrapped in fear of what I would become
What would I give to find anyone who could

Feel my breath and breathe it in
Breathe it in so I could know how it feels to have Someone else to carry my
Sleepless night although I know it's not fair

A glimpse of hope in this measure of time
A knowing glance that I returned in kind
Here's that day oh that restless sun
What would I give to find anyone who could

CHORUS

Fare thee well, my love, as our paths cross here on this Frozen landscape so bitter and so sweet, with Hearts divided and souls unrequited

Fare thee well my, my sleepless night they are over
But with, with all my heart I will see you
I will see you in...my dreams

Sold it down, river of love, river of love
Let me drown in this river of love

Words and Music by: Janet D. Whiteway © 2008 S.O.C.A.N.